

COOKBOOK REVIEWS

WHETHER YOU'RE AFTER INTERNATIONAL FLAVOURS, HEALTHY DISHES OR COMFORT FOOD, ANOOSKA TUCKER-EVANS HAS YOU COVERED WITH HER PICK OF THE LATEST COOKBOOKS

Got a cookbook for review? Email anooska.tuckerevans@news.com.au

CHEFS HOST CHRISTMAS TOO DARREN PURCHASE

$29.99, HARDIE GRANT BOOKS

He's known for his fabulous sweet creations as a guest chef on MasterChef. Now Melbourne pastry master Darren Purchase is putting his spin on Christmas with this handy little guide to the holidays. Think everything from pork rack with crackling to orange and soy-glazed duck, seafood platters, and punch.

WILD DELICIOUS AMBER ROSE

$55, PENGUIN
From the author of Love Bake Nourish and The Wholefood Pantry comes this healthy cookbook, with recipes that take things back to basics and celebrate the best of fresh ingredients. You'll find recipes for everything from coal-roasted veg and buckwheat scones to gin cocktails and frangipane pear tart.

CRAVINGS: HUNGRY FOR MORE CHRISSEY TEIGEN

$45, PENGUIN
Ever wondered what a supermodel really eats? Well here the Swimsuit Illustrated model and Instagram queen shows us. But forget boiled chicken and lettuce leaves, the hardcover is filled with recipes you'll actually want to eat, such as prawn and pork wonton soup, and soy-garlic fried ribs.

DESTINATION FLAVOUR PEOPLE AND PLACES ADAM LIAW

$50, HARDIE GRANT/SBS BOOKS
If you love Adam Liaw's SBS TV series Destination Flavour, you'll adore this book, which goes behind the scenes of the show, offering insights into its making, candid moments from the road, and, most importantly, the recipes picked up along the way.