Books to browse

Wild Delicious—To those in a certain section of the foodie world, Amber Rose needs no introduction. Her cookbook Love Bake Nourish introduced the idea of seasonal, healthy eating to baking, and was followed closely by The Wholefood Pantry, a handy collection of 'toolbox recipes'. Her latest cookbook encourages you to feed not only your body, but also your soul, with a focus on creating irresistible dishes made with simple ingredients gathered from the gardens, orchards, oceans and farms of New Zealand. Her story, woven through the pages, is similarly inspiring, as she tells of her years living abroad, before finally coming back to her roots in New Zealand.

Iconic: The Masters of Italian Fashion—This book takes you beneath the seams of some of the most award-winning Italian designers and celebrates Italy's incredible contribution to the world of fashion. Author and illustrator Megan Hess focuses on 10 of its best-known fashion houses, including Gucci, Prada, Missoni and Miu Miu. A beautifully illustrated book, this is the perfect addition to your coffee table. Prepare to waste several hours flipping through and sighing.

Places We Swim—Swimming is central to the Australian identity and this wonderful book celebrates 60 of its best places for a dip. Find out about incredible seascides, waterfalls, rock pools and ocean nooks you'd never heard of, as revealed
